A Pleasure for the Wife

The woman who does her own baking should enjoy it immensely. Baking is really a pleasure and the source of much satisfaction if the housewife has much confidence in her results. But the excellency of her baking depends almost entirely on the quality of the ingredients which she uses.

"Yale Pride" and "Belle" are milled and blended especially for home use. They are "satisfactory flours" and the wife is sure of inviting bread and pastries when she uses them.

"YALE ATE MARLETTE TOO"

The High School Team At That Place Is Easy For Ryan's Gang.

"We have met the enemy and they are ours." These well known words express the sentiment of Coach Ryan, who took his Braves to Marlette on Friday of last week and came home with the scalp of their ancient enemy. It would be hard to say who played the best as all of the boys were stars. The pitching of Hallman was one of the features, this being the best game that "Dutch" ever twirled. He was ably received by "Little Beadle" who got only four men trying to steal 2nd. Note: Only four tried it, then they gave it up as a bad job. H. Hallman pulled two circus catches in the field, as did his partner, Reid. Kennedy played a star game at second and Shaw at third made many nice plays.

"Pat" Injecting Ginger Into the Players

The team has certainly improved and coach Ryan should be congratulated on his ability to put the "pep" in them. You will always notice "Pat" on the bench watching every detail at all times.

After the game "Doc" Clyne, the boy with the melodious voice, assisted

Shaw Got 'Em All

by a bunch of enthusiastic rooters, by fair means or foul, got hold of some one's pet Angora and paraded the main streets of our sister village, during which the welkin rang with the greeting, "Yale got Marlette's goat." The umpiring of Bourke was the very finest, not a question of his decisions being raised by either side.

A third game will probably be arranged at Yale in the near future.

Following is the game by innings:—

First Inning

Yale—F. D. Beadle was the first man up and was out, 2nd to 1st. Shaw beat out an infield hit. F. L. Beadle was hit by the pitcher. On the first ball pitched the boys worked a double steal, Shaw going to third and Beadle to second. Hallman got a clean hit over second. Kennedy fanned.—One hit, two runs.

Marlette—Simington, the first man up, hit for three bases. Redmond poled a hard grounder to Gough, who missed the man at the plate. On the next ball pitched Redmond attempted to steal second and was thrown out by 20 feet. Juhl fanned. Boyne out. Hallman to Beavis.—One hit, one run.

Second Inning

Yale—Reid was safe by an error of the shortstop. Beavis hit over first. Gough singled, scoring Reid but Beavis was out trying to make third. H. Hallman was safe when Juhl dropped his long fly. F. D. Beadle fouled out to catcher. Shaw put up a high fly to 2d.—Two hits, 1 run.

Marlette—Hallman fanned out all three. "Nuff said."

Third Inning

Yale—F. D. Beadle fouled out to catcher. "Dutch" got his second hit. Kennedy laid down a perfect bunt, no one on the Marlette infield knowing what to do. Reid ended the inning

Farm House Burns

The large frame house on the farm two and one-half miles southwest of Yale, owned by Mrs. Marion A. Johnson of Almont and occupied at the time by James Adams and family was completely destroyed by fire Saturday of last week just after dinner. Mrs. Adams had built a fresh fire in the cook stove and was getting ready to do some baking. It is supposed that the fire started in the roof of the house from a defective chimney. Some time ago lightning struck this chimney, shattering it, and in rebuilding a crack must have been overlooked.

Nearby neighbors on seeing the blaze soon gathered and assisted in saving what household goods were down stairs. All the beds, bedding, clothing, etc., upstairs, amounting to about $300, were burned along with the building. Everything being as dry as tinder, it was only about three-quarters of an hour from the time the fire started until the entire structure was burned to the ground.

We did not learn what the loss amounts to or whether there was any insurance on the building or not.

James Adams feels very grateful to all the neighbors for their assistance at the time of his recent fire in saving what household goods they could. He surely appreciates their neighborly kindness.

REV. CHAS. BRAGG, PASTOR

The people were surprised Sunday morning to find Rev. Robert Allen of the Saginaw City Rescue Mission filling the pulpit. He is a man of ability and power. Everyone present enjoyed him greatly. Morning subject—"The Successful Christian." Evening subject—"The Three Hopeless Cases."

Mrs. Allen gave a very interesting talk in the afternoon which was well attended considering the weather. She gave some of her experience in the home mission field. Little do we know the need of mission workers in our city.

The Sunday school dropped away considerable last Sunday. We hope to see every one in their place the coming Sunday.

Don't forget the mid-week prayer service. There is where we are fitted for the Sunday services. Come and bring some with you.

Choir rehearsal at Mable Martins Friday night.

Mrs. Slosser entertained her Sunday school class of seventeen last Saturday afternoon.

The third quarterly meeting will convene May 29 and 30. Business session held at Yale Saturday, communion at Cole Sunday morning. As many as can plan to attend both sessions.

Celebrate Decoration Day

We promised our readers last week that the program of Decoration Day would be published in this week's issue of the Expositor. It is impossible for us to fulfill our promise as Committee-man John Sheely informs us that the program is not complete as yet but will be ready for next week.

Hon. Harvey Tappan, judge of the St. Clair county circuit court, has kindly consented to deliver the oration, and as he is a favorite with Yale people, having made his home in this city for a number of years, his presence here on such an occasion as this will bring many friends and admirers from around Yale to listen to his address.

The committee extends an invitation to every person both old and young, residents of the city and the farm to lay aside your work for that day and join with the old veterans in showing respect of the dead heroes by strewing their graves with garlands of flowers and join in the exercises of the day.

M. E. Church Notes.
